My business is developing

Ever since it was established, your business has been registered with the Banque-Carrefour des Entreprises (central business database) and is listed there under its business number. This number will never change. It is allocated to you for life.

However, your business may undergo certain changes: a new address, new activities, a new agent responsible for demonstrating access to the profession on behalf of the business manager, a new telephone number or website address, a new name, a new bank account number, etc.

Your details up to date in the BCE

You have a legal obligation to keep your details in the Banque-Carrefour des Entreprises (central business database) up to date. If there is the slightest change, let us know immediately. We will take care of the formalities.
